European Manufacturer of Terry Towels and Bathrobes

ABOUT US

The story of Yana Ltd. - factory Panagyurishte dates from the beginning of 20th century with the production of terry towels and fabric in Panagyurishte town, Bulgaria. Its founder Krastio Simeonov Boiadziev (1882 - 1935) is known, because in World War I was mobilized in Main Supply Management and there he began producing towels for the army with wooden hand looms. In March 1923 Boiadziev creates the company “First Bulgarian factory for towels - Limited partnership”, which became a solid foundation of this type of production.

Few years later the name of the company was changed to factory for terry towels “Oborishte” and the facilities were supplied with first of their kind mechanical looms. The need for terry towels, both at home and abroad, grew, which led to increasing the production and purchasing additional looms, both mechanical and automated. In 1998 the factory became part of YANA Ltd. factories, which marked the beginning of a new stage in the terry towels producing.

Today, thanks to the latest technologies, YANA Ltd. factories features the newest machines, which contribute to the creation of products with beautiful and modern design, fully consistent with our clients’ needs.
